

Woodblend™ Series

NEW from Capsa Healthcare! The Avalo Woodblend Series medication cart line features enhanced styling and improved modularity to facilitate component replacement and refurbishing. Modern healthcare providers will appreciate the superior organization of medication administration systems and clinical supplies. Avalo's long-term value provides the pharmacy a lower cost of ownership and improved cost management.

Visit CapsaHealthcare.com/avalowoodblend

The Avalo Difference

- Modular design for simple component replacement and refurbishing
- High-density panels maintain like-new appearance and offer enhanced durability
- Wide array of configurations available featuring 3", 6", and 10" seamless drawers, and modular or integrated drawer dividers
- Full selection of computer arm and tray systems for EHR/eMAR software, plus multiple accessories and locking options
- Premium casters simplify cart movement by 20%

Mountain Ash

PCL model shown with optional laptop arm

*Available in three widths:
S, L, XL*

Northern Cherry

UDL model shown with optional accessories

Optimal Organization and Capacity

Every Avalo medication cart features a standard set of organization accessories including secure narcotics storage. Choose from several models and capacities to accommodate a host of popular medication management systems and packaging types, and related supplies.

Automated Packaging

Punch Card

